

Field Studies (FLD)

(Global Studies Department)

FLD 110—Field Studies

3 cr.

This course is designed to be taken in conjunction with International Trips offered in the Fall, or Spring terms. The course is comprised of 1 credit of seminar/lecture and 2 lab credits of in-country activity and experience. In lecture/seminar, students will gain deeper appreciation of the destination country, including, but not limited to: study of the history, culture, politics, and intellectual traditions. In the field through such activities as museums and site visits, performances, and lectures students will engage in direct experience with the cultural expressions, traditions, politics, and history of the region.
